

Permanent Residential Aged Care Request for a Combined Assets and Income Assessment

Purpose of this form	The Australian Government Department of Human Services or the Department of Veterans' Affairs need details about your combined assets and income for permanent residential aged care purposes.
	The information you provide will be used to calculate your aged care fees and charges. The information will also be used to calculate the amount of Government assistance the provider may receive on your behalf.
When to use this form	<ul> <li>Residents who enter residential aged care on or after 1 July 2014 may need to pay the maximum daily means tested fee if they do not have a combined assets and income assessment.</li> <li>Having a residential aged care combined assets and income assessment will determine:</li> <li>the means tested fee you will pay for your care, and</li> <li>whether you qualify for additional Government assistance with your accommodation costs.</li> </ul>
	Note: This assessment is NOT relevant to either respite care, Home Care Packages or for financial hardship assistance.
	You should have received the booklet Information you need to know about your claim for Permanent Residential Aged Care Request for a Combined Assets and Income Assessment with this form. # 21 Please read this before answering the following question.

Net market value is NOT the replacement or insured value. It is the amount you would get if you sold the item(s). Even if the Department of Human Services or the Department of Veterans' Affairs already has information about their value it can be important to update this information to take into account any changes in value.

The value of your household contents and personal effects will be taken to be $10,000 if you do not provide an estimate.

What is your estimate of the net market value of your (and your partner's) household contents and personal effects on the relevant date of admission to care?

22 On the relevant date of admission to care, did you (and/or your partner) own or part-own your home?

Note: Answer 'Yes' to this question if your home was in a retirement village and you had paid an entry contribution, or if you were paying off a mortgage on your home, or if your home was owned by a private trust or a private company that was controlled by you (and/or your partner).
